Description:

The city's origin is related to the Portus Victoriae founded by the Romans. However, the capital's urban development was not to come about until the 11th century. During the 18th and 19th centuries, the city became a key trading port for the maritime routes between Castile and the American colonies. From around the middle of the 19th century, Santander became one of the most exclusive summer tourist destinations on the northern coast of the Iberian Peninsula. During your tour you will see the Paseo de Pereda, the nearby Cathedral (13th century), the Plaza Porticada, the Arrabal, el Cubo, the Town Hall, the popular market of la Esperanza.
